Position Title: Kindergarten Teacher

Adda Clevenger School is an independent TK-8 school offering an accelerated academic curriculum plus a fully integrated performing arts program for San Francisco Bay Area school children. Our educational program is inspired by the child-centric experientialist philosophy of John Dewey. Our school day consists of a dual curriculum of arts and academics, and students from as early as TK move through subject matter with different teachers on a period rotation throughout the day.

Beginning in the 2019-2020 school year, Adda Clevenger will be adding a second Kindergarten section. As our new Kindergarten teacher, you will be working closely with the existing Kindergarten teacher, Lower School Director and the whole Lower School (TK-4) faculty to launch our new K section. This is an exciting opportunity for an energetic, creative and highly self-motivated individual.

Kindergarten Teacher Essential Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teach core subjects to students in Kindergarten.
- Develop and maintain respective grade curriculum for Math, Language Arts, Social Studies, Science and Civility, and other subject matter as needed.
- Plan and prepare a program of study to include course materials such as syllabi, homework assignments and handouts, employing a variety of instructional techniques and instructional media that meets the individual needs, interests, and abilities of the students.
- Collaborate with other teachers to address special needs of individual students; actively enlist the support of colleagues to provide additional perspective on challenges facing individual students.
- Provide substitute support for other teachers as requested.
- Assume responsibility for specified duties which include lunch and playground duty and dismissal and arrival duties.
- Attend various school functions throughout the year including performing arts programs, field trips, parent-teacher nights, and evening events.
