

Sixth Grade English Language Arts (ELA)

Course Description/Mission

*Adda Clevenger Upper School ELA:
Building foundational knowledge and exploring creative depths*

The primary goal of Adda Clevenger's upper school ELA program is to provide student-centered ELA instruction in reading, writing, language, and philosophical inquiry, while also fostering each child's creative potential. This is achieved by knowing every student in-depth. In fact, each year our primary texts and projects often change based on the needs and interests of that year's students. By discovering every child's learning style, strengths, weaknesses, and interests, and then providing them a variety of student-centered learning opportunities, as well as a safe space to explore their unique potential, students become academically competitive and creatively courageous.

In sixth grade ELA, students receive instruction over the course of four units: Magical Realism, Modern Realistic Fiction, Classics: Fantasy Fiction, and Dystopian Fiction. Each unit relates to our 6th grade yearly college and career readiness theme: Self & Society. As students progress through each unit, they will ask the overarching essential questions, "Who am I?" "What is society?" "What are societal norms?" "Who chooses the values a society accepts?" "What if someone doesn't fit into societal norms?" "What are my personal values?" These questions regarding self and society are explicitly investigated in order to facilitate the ACS mission to ensure students make the developmental, social, and intellectual progress necessary to become leaders at school and beyond.

Each student-centered unit begins with a primary reading focus and culminates with a writing performance task which mirrors the prior reading. Over the course of the year, students will receive standard-specific instruction in the following major domains: Reading: Foundational Skills, Reading: Literature, Reading: Informational Texts, Writing: Informational, Writing: Narrative, and Writing: Persuasive, Language: Conventions, Language: Vocabulary. In addition to our in-class reading and writing, students will complete 600 pages of independent reading and construct two critical responses to literature to demonstrate their comprehension of the texts.
